

Kathy Kelly

How to Get Out of Iraq and Afghanistan

Sunday, October 4, 1:00 p.m.

Browsing Room, Neilson Library, Smith College ♿

Prominent activist Kathy Kelly will speak on How To Get Out of Iraq and Afghanistan. She will also report on her recent trips to Afghanistan and Pakistan, where she visited the refugee camps for Pakistanis displaced by fighting between the government and the Taliban.

Kathy Kelly is the founder of Voices in the Wilderness, which is now the Voices for Creative Nonviolence (<http://vcnv.org>). Kathy has made many trips to Iraq. She has twice been nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize.

Sponsored by the Smith College Anthropology Department, the Smith College Office of Religious and Spiritual Life, the Northampton Committee to Stop the War in Iraq, the Western Massachusetts American Friends Service Committee, and the Middle East Peace Coalition.

Contact: 586-4950

This week is the 8th anniversary of the start of the war in Afghanistan.